

CCBM organised a virtual training on “Big Data Analytics in Banking: Opportunities, Challenges and Use Cases” for the staff within China Construction Bank (Malaysia) Berhad and participants from the China Construction Bank Group, scheduled on 24 September 2021 (Part I) and 8 October 2021 (Part II).

We have a great line-up of speakers who shared their in-depth knowledge on Data Science and vast experiences in conducting Big Data Analytics, particularly in the banking environment. The virtual training was broadcast via CCB University online learning platform.

Invited guests:

Part I

- Dr. Chew Yew Choong, Head, Data Science and Customer Value Management, U Mobile Sdn Bhd
- Benjamin Chang Xuan Shi, Data Scientist, British American Tobacco (Malaysia) Bhd
- Toh Hock Chai, Senior Advisor, CCBM
- Lim Fong Fong, Chief Compliance Officer, CCBM
- Jaden Jia Peng, Head, Risk and Compliance, CCBL
- Jack Wang Jing, Head, Global Banking and Markets, CCBM

Part II

- Professor Dr Ting Choo Yee, Faculty of Computing & Informatics, Multimedia University, Cyberjaya, Malaysia
- Dr Chew Yew Choong, Head, Data Science and Customer Value Management, U Mobile Sdn Bhd
- Roy Hu, Director, Huawei Malaysia Cloud Business Development Department
- Martin Rong Qi, Executive Vice President, Global Banking and Markets, CCBL
- Low Ai Loon, Senior Economist, CCBM
- Yang Yan Qing, Assistant Head, Risk and Compliance, CCBL